Mark 3: 22-30

22 And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem were saying, “He is possessed by Beelzebul,” and “by the prince of demons he casts out the demons.” 23 And he called them to him and said to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan? 24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25 And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. 26 And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but is coming to an end. 27 But no one can enter a strong man’s house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. Then indeed he may plunder his house. 28 “Truly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the children of man, and whatever blasphemies they utter, 29 but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin” — 30 for they were saying, “He has an unclean spirit.”

One of the hardest things in the world is to be right and not hurt anybody with it.

We all love to be right, but how do you react when you are right? Is it an enjoyable experience for those around?

The best thing that could ever happen to someone is for them to know Jesus 97%

47% agree that it is wrong to share one’s personal beliefs with someone of a different faith in hopes that they will one day share the same faith.

Once you label someone, you can do what you like with them.

It never has forgiveness because it never wants forgiveness God’s way.

Next Step:

If I believe that Jesus is both powerful and loving, then I have nothing to fear.
